Macfarlane, which may be found elsewhere, is published a history of the family. Col. Macfarlane was bom Jan. 10, 1830, in Glasgow, Scotland, where he lived until he was eighteen years old. Vhatever education he had at school was secured before he was sixteen years old. For two years he was employed as a clerk in a dry goods store in Glasgow, when he decided to seek a home in the New VWorld, and leaving Glasgow on the sailing vessel, George VWashington, in August, 1848, arrived in New York after a voyage of thirtv--five days, anticipating the coming of his parents, whom he met at Shreveville, New Jersey. Mr. Macfarlane learned the tanners trade at Mt. Holly, N. J. , his wages for the first year being 25, in addition to his board and washing. In 1860 he opened a tin shop...
