Quail Hill Publishing, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Against the background of San Francisco at the time of the Great Earthquake and Fire of 1906 comes a tale of love and loss. Ruth Greer is the spoiled daughter of a shipping magnate who finds a young boy that has run away from his home in Chinatown-an area of gambling parlors, opium dens, sing-song girls, as well as families trying to eke out a living. It is also home of a number of highbinder tongs, the infamous hatchet men of Chinese lore. There, she meets the handsome, enigmatic leader of one such tong, the young boy s father, and discovers he is neither as frightening, cruel, or wanton as reputation would have her believe. As Ruth s fascination with the area grows, she finds herself pulled deeper into the intrigue of the lawless area, and Li Han-lin s life. But the two are from completely different worlds, and when both worlds are shattered by the quake and fire that destroys San Francisco, they face their ultimate test.
