

Requiem for the Forgotten Path: The Summoning (Paperback)

By Robert Wingfield

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A fast-moving Gothic thriller, alternately funny, sinister, sexy and evocative, calling on many elements of the supernatural as well as contemporary issues facing normal people as experienced through the eyes of a feisty heroine without a recorded identity. You won t have read anything quite like this through conventional publishing channels. Ankerita, a Tudor anchoress released from her tomb after nearly 500 years of disturbed sleep, is suffering from amnesia and dying of exposure on a hilltop. From being at the lowest of ebbs, she is rescued by a scruffy hillwalker, who decides to take her as his girlfriend. It is only when Ankerita discovers he is custodian of a witch s tome handed down by generations of Ankerita s family, that she regains her memory and comes to terms with her situation. She has dreams of re-joining a foreign rock band she used to belong to, and use her enchanting voice, but her fake passport is held by a photographer linked to a gang of people-traffickers. Ankerita confronts him, but this alerts the organisation to her presence, and...
