By Santita D Anjou

WestBow Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Naomi Peterson is months away from graduating from high school when a haunting dream she has had since she was a little girl, resurfaces. Living with her mom, who is suffering from depression since her dad abandoned them, Naomi seeks solace from her prophetic dreams and writes them down in a very special journal. As the last two months of high school wind down, Naomi finds herself at the crossroads of a two-year mismatched relationship and discovers that she is falling for someone new. Daniel is her first love and is all she has ever known when it comes to a companion, but Joseph is a southern gentleman, who is refreshing and has a lot in common with Naomi. But, does she end something that has brought her comfort during the most trying times of her life, or pursue something that is new and uncertain? In the midst of everything she is up against, Naomi has a profound dream and records the memory of it in the journal of which she holds very dear. When this journal...
