It is discussed often by men who know nothing about it, simply because it has been incorporated into the party platform, and opposed by men equally ignorant, because it has been condemned by the other party. Protection is either right or wrong; is a benefit or else an injury; and it should be examined and considered calmly and dispassionately as to whether it promotes or retards the prosperity and welfare of the country. The examination should be a practical one, and not from a theoretical standpoint. Many things are very beautiful in theory, but when applied practically, under new or different conditions, are perfect failures. You might as well prescribe the same bill of...
