Government Accountability Office, 2004 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)57055374 Subject: Smart cards. Excerpt: . . . the recommendations to develop an internal GSA smart card implementation strategy, develop a process for conducting evaluations of smart card implementations, and share lessons learned and best practices across government. The responsibility for one recommendation - establishing guidelines for federal building security that address the role of smart card technology - was transferred to DHS. Recent federal direction contained in Homeland Security 17 Presidential Directive 12 could further facilitate smart card adoption across the federal government. This directive, signed in late August, seeks to establish a common identification standard for federal employees and contractors to protect against a litany of threats, including terrorism and identity theft. The directive instructs the Departments of Commerce, State, Defense, Justice, and Homeland Security to work with OMB and the Office of Science and Technology Policy to institute the new standards and policies. With federal agencies increasing pursuit of smart cards, directives from central management such as this one could be an important vehicle for ensuring that more comprehensive...
