

Shimmerdogs (Paperback)

By Dianne Linden

Thistledown Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Shimmerdogs is the story of young Lester B. Hopkins - Mike to almost everyone except his mother, Master Corporal Alice Mackelwain. He is just a boy trying to make sense of his own world that is ever more complicated by the intrusion of the world of his absent soldiering mother. Mike is very worried about his mother's safety while she is in Bosnia. He, like his sister, gets caught up in his mother's tragic stories like the one of a little boy named Edin, whose daily life includes the nightmares of the violence and terror of war. Mike wonders how to make sense of it all, how to step outside the fears he harbours and the unanswered questions he has. Stumbling upon a book he finds in the library that describes the ancient belief that dogs guard the doorways to death, he begins to shape an understanding of his troubles. Wasn't he brought back to life by a shimmering white dog with jewellery eyes who saved him from drowning? The connections become more apparent when Mike's dog, Merit, disappears, and he reasons...
