THE LAST HARVEST (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Last Harvest Mom? Of the papers garnered here were written after fourscore years after the heat and urge of the day and are the fruit of a long life of observation and meditation. The author's abiding interest in Emerson is shown in his close and eager study of the Journals during these later years. He hungered for every thing that concerned the Concord Sage, who had been one of the most potent influences in his life. Although he could discern flaws in the Emersonian amber, he could not brook slight or indifference toward Emerson in the youth of to-day. Whatever flaws he himself detected, he well knew that Emerson would always rest secure on the pedestal where long ago he placed him. Likewise with Thoreau: If shortcomings were to be pointed out in this favorite, he wished to be the one to do it. And so, before taking Thoreau to task for certain inaccuracies, he takes Lowell to task for criticizing Thoreau. He then proceeds, not without evident satisfaction, to call attention to Thoreau's slips as an observer and reporter of nature; yet in no carping spirit, but, as he himself has said: Not that I love Thoreau less, but that I love truth more.
