The publication is easy in read better to understand. It is writter in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).

The Author of this little work pretends to prove by passages of Scripture that women are not of the human race. A Minister of Brandenburg, named Gedicus, refuted this seriously without understanding the Author's aim, which was to make a violent satire against the Socinians; for what can one imagine more calculated to turn them into ridicule, or more mortifying, than to show them that the carping strictures with which they contested the consubstantiality of the Son of God, are capable of being turned to prove that the Scriptures nowhere call women human. We know that all Heresies are only false interpretations of the Bible. There is not one, even to M. Lapeirere's fantastical ideas of the Pre-adamites, which is not founded, if they may be believed, on the testimony of Holy Writ.
