RUSSIAN LITERATURE, 1988-94: THE END OF AN ERA

University of Toronto Press, Canada, 1995. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 230 x 153 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The collapse of the Soviet Union brought about radical changes in the Russian literary world. With the state's relinquishment of control over literary production, writers acquired freedom of expression and publication. State publishing houses, now self-supporting enterprises, stopped printing money-losing books and turned to foreign detective novels and erotic literature, effecting a considerable shift in...
