Excerpt: .or third night, is indicated in constipation. For the morning laxative the following are useful: in an ounce of hot water, or Hunyadi Janos a sufficiency, with a teaspoonful of tincture ginger, and some hot water. Ordinary purgatives, as effervescing salines, are apt to lie too cold on the stomach for elderly persons. If their assimilative organs become impaired, the dietary of childhood is desirable. Mentally and bodily, we find the proverb once a man and twice a child holds good. Milk puddings, stewed fruit and milk, or cream, bread, butter, and jam, or honey; fish, poultry, game; little kickshaws rather than solid meat, should form the bulk of the dietary. Remember that whether bile acids or lithates, the troubles of advanced life are intimately linked with the presence of nitrogenized waste in the blood. Elderly persons soon. lose heal, and should be well...
