On the 4th of July the British fleet sailed up the Potomac, along the shores of which they plundered and burned dwellings, and had several skirmishes. Many Tories and negroes, it was said, were on board. 3. Five companies were raised about this time, in Baltimore and Frederick counties, for the 1776 war. At the same time, a number of Eastern Shore companies were sent to the lower part of Somerset county to disarm the disaffected. A number of the inhabitants of Caroline county at one time marched into Dorchester county, where they were joined by some of the inhabitants, and committed various depredations and outrages. 4. The convention continued in session till the 11th of November. During its sittings the State Constitution was formed. The Proprietor's vention? 2. What of a man-of-war? What became of most of the families? What of the enemy? Where did the enemy's vessels go on July 4? 3. Of more soldiers? 4. What government was swept away, a new and independent government was organized, the Established Church was broken up, its clergy were deprived of their livings, the vestries were struck out of existence, and many of the churches were closed. 5. Thomas Johnson, Esq., of Anne Arundel county, was the first Governor appointed under the new Constitution, and its legislature met on the 5th of February, 1777. Upon the announced principle that in every State allegiance and...
