

What It Really Means to Be Healthy! (Paperback)

By Linda Phd Rn Royer

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a mini-course in the fundamentals of health and self-care in the context of natural healing practices. Descriptions of natural remedies are balanced with considerations of historical origins, scientific research outcomes, and Biblical principles. Understandings of how we make decisions for ourselves are operationalized and positive guidance is offered. This book compliments the Empowering the Nurse Leader: Implementing a Faith Community Nursing Practice. Together this bundle guides the faith community nurse in steps to establish a nursing practice promoting health and well-being among congregants and, by extension, in the wider community.
