Faithful Friends: Holocaust Survivors Stories of the Pets Who Gave Them Comfort, Suffered Alongside Them and Waited for Their Return

By Susan Bulanda

Cladach Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 144 pages. Dimensions: 7.4in. x 5.0in. x 0.4in. When Jewish families were torn from their homes, neighborhoods and livelihoods, what happened to the animals that loved and depended on them? Here is a collection of never-before-told stories of pets during the Holocaust. Most of these accounts are told by men and women who were children during World War II in Europe. As they lost parents, siblings and friends in the death camps, their beloved pets provided comfort and courage, gave them a connection to happier times, and helped them to never give up hope. ADVANCE PRAISE: Susan Bulanda shares with us stories of love instead of hate, selflessness instead of selfishness. These stories speak to the spirit of hope in all humans (and animals). -Rabbi Loel M. Weiss This unique collection of deeply moving stories by Holocaust survivors reveals how the bond with their companion animals intensified and deepened during that dark, horrific night of carnage, betrayal, and terror, providing solace, warmth and love. These heart-breaking and heart-warming stories add a hitherto unexplored dimension to our necessary knowledge of the Holocaust and cast new light on the indestructible, soul-sustaining nature of the human-animal bond. -Aviva...

Reviews

The ebook is easy to go through easier to recognize. We have studied and I am certain that I will plan to read through once again in the future. I am quickly getting a pleasure of studying a composed publication.
