

Report of the Expedition for the Relief of Yellow-Fever Sufferers on the Lower Mississippi (Classic Reprint)

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Expedition for the Relief of Yellow-Fever Sufferers on the Lower Mississippi Sir: I have the honor to submit the following report of the expedition for the relief of yellow-fever sufferers on the Lower Mississippi, on which expedition I was ordered as assistant to First Lieut. H. H. Benner, Eighteenth Infantry. In obedience to telegraphic instructions from headquarters Department of the South, Newport Barracks, Ky., September 29 and September 30, 1878, First Lieut. H. H. Benner, Eighteenth Infantry, and I left Atlanta, Ga., on the morning of October 1, 1878, and proceeded directly to Saint Louis, Mo., where we arrived in the evening of October 2, 1878. Lieutenant Benner reported to Gov. A. R. Shepherd, chairman national relief committee, and I reported to Lieutenant Benner, according to instructions, upon our arrival at the Lindell Hotel, Saint Louis. The steamer John M. Chambers, a stern-wheel boat of about 300 tons capacity, had been chartered for the occasion, and as being loaded with stores for distribution, and of which boat and cargo Lieutenant Benner was..

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE
[8.06 MB]

Reviews

Unquestionably, this is actually the very best work by any article writer. It usually does not price a lot of. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Augustine Pfannerstill

Very beneficial to any or all class of individuals. It is rally interesting throug looking at time. You will not feel monotony at at any time of your time (that's what catalogs are for concerning in the event you question me).

-- Dr. Dallas Reinger IV