Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Report on Mt; St. Elias Sir Edward, now Admiral Belcher, in 1837, was the next navigator of importance to visit this region, and from his narrative it would seem that he placed special importance on the determination of the position and height of Saint Elias. He failed, however, to get observations of precision from on shore at Point Riou, as he had intended, and that his results were satisfactory we may doubt, as he does not give any elevation or position for the mountain in his narrative, and even omits it entirely from his chart. This, notwithstanding his mention of having obtained satisfactory observations. Whatever the results may have been, most unfortunately they do not appear to have been made public under his name, except a. View which he gives of the mountain, which is hardly more satisfactory than that of Vancouver. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
