AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Caroline Phillips believes she will be spending the rest of her life with Bill Kincaid, the first man she falls in love with-until the Vietnam War gets in the way. A week before Bill and Caroline are to be married, Bill receives his draft notice. The couple elects to postpone the wedding. Caroline knows he might come back a changed man-if he comes back at all. While waiting for him to return, she decides to get a real estate license and start a new career. Upon passing her exam, she is immediately hired to work not as a real estate agent, as she had planned, but as a quality control person-observing the firm s agents and reporting back on their performance to Derek Dawson, the handsome young son of the firm s owner. The new job challenges her in ways she could never have imagined, and the attraction she feels toward Derek complicates her life even further. Now only time will tell what her future will be. In this romance novel, set in the 1960s, a young woman embarking on a new career struggles with her feelings regarding the two very different men in her life.
