University, Economy and Democracy: transformations and challenges
The case of Greece

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | The case of Greece | In a rapidly changing world, the university is today facing challenges which are forcing it to reform in order to survive. Massification, global competition and the restriction of public funding are turning the university in the direction of an all the tighter connection with the needs of a knowledge-based economy. However, the relationship that the university is developing with the economy proves to a large extent to...
