Excerpt from The Benedictines of Caldey Island: Containing the History, Purpose, Method, and Summary of the Rule of the Benedictines of the Isle of Caldey, S. Wales; (Formerly of Painsthorpe, York) Might easily recur. It is therefore pleasant to record how uniformly cordial my relations have been with the Abbot and all the Community. When they first came here, having neither priest nor chapel, they were obliged to come to the parish church for Holy Communion. But they did not content themselves with that. Though their many Offices took up much time, they yet came regularly to the Sunday morning and evening services, sang in the Choir (one being organist for half the time they were here), and helped in the Sunday School. One Of them started a Class for farm lads, which proved a great success, attracting a large number, and bringing many to Confirmation and Holy Communion. If the Regulars and Seculars had always worked together as we have done, many reasons for Dissolution would have been non-existent. But it is a happy augury for the future; for though on Caldey...

Reviews

This pdf is definitely worth getting. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
