Young and beautiful, Julia Richard is in love with the dashing Douglas Daugherty. Circumstances keep the young couple apart but, very much in love, they plan their lives together in letters. Julia will attend nursing school, and Douglas, the U. S Air Force Academy. After graduation they will marry and live happily ever after. A white picket fence. Two kids. Two cats. The American Dream. But the dream cracks when Julia learned that Douglas is being sent to Vietnam just months before their wedding. Then it completely shatters when she hears the words Douglas has been killed. In spite of her loss, Julia remains devoted to Douglas, moving to the home they planned to share together, still writing letters, telling him about her life and her plans. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
