Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. I have read quite a few books on the subject of self publishing. This was the only one that made me laugh. That is a good thing because Daniel Marks has taken a dry subject and made it humorous yet informative! - Bill Jerrard. Being new to the world of self publishing, I am reading as many books as I can on the subject. This one had some brilliant ideas I have not seen mentioned anywhere else. Well worth the cost! - Michael Stratton Invigorating! Inspiring! Funny and packed full of useful self publishing tips! - Jenny Jo I have already published several books with Amazon Kindle. I was after information on publishing my books in paperback. This book did not disappoint. I formatted my first book in print. Thanks! - Martha Smildsin The entire time I was reading this book, I felt like the author was sitting right next to me. The great conversational writing tone made it easier to absorb the wealth of self publishing information. - Claire Smith A very detailed and deep journey through self publishing in the digital world and the mass paperback world. It opened my eyes and made me want to write more! - Thomas Lasky Best selling author Daniel Marks takes you on a step by step journey through the often confusing and misguided world of self publishing your book on both Amazon Kindle and paperback through Createspace. Many authors who are just getting started in self publishing have a very small budget to work with. I know because I was in this same position at one time. Many self publishing guides want you to buy expensive computer software or expensive master classes to...
