IDENTITY AND SOCIAL CHANGE

Transaction Publishers. Paperback. Condition: New. 217 pages. Dimensions: 0.0in. x 0.0in. x 0.0in. There has been a veritable explosion of writing in recent years about the concept of identity. Amidst this outpouring, the most influential writing has emerged from identity politics and academic postmodernism. These movements focus on the construction of difference, the solidarity of marginal groups, and the epistemological status of the subject. While of far-reaching significance, these movements have also led to a general neglect of the structural and...
