NYQ Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 84 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.2in. x 0.3in. Poetry. Having already established his poetry among the most inventive ever, the distinguished man of avant-garde letters Richard Kostelanetz realizes further radically formal steps in THREE POEMS. Each is a sequence of one-word texts continuously interleaved with the others in an unprecedented way, in sum offering an unprecedented reading experience. The book concludes with Kostelanetz's visual essay Poetry I Shall Not Make. For work of this kind he has earned individual entries in the Readers Guide to Twentieth-Century Writers, Contemporary Poets, and Britannica. com, among other highly selective directories. I sense the strength of the narrative (and there are many narratives throughout) to be elastic or plastic: how the reader molds it in his/her my your mind. John Robert Colombo This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
