

Mae West: An Interview Biography

By Clive Hirschhorn

Grand Cyrus Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 148 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. In 1968, noted film and theatre critic Clive Hirschhorn was a young feature writer for the London Sunday Express. In Hollywood on assignment, he heard that the legendary Mae West loved British accents and was able to get an interview with the 75-year-old film star. His observations on the official Mae and the actual woman behind the public persona provide new insights into this complex, much caricatured, and compelling cultural icon. This book offers a funny, touching, and revealing account of the life of the woman who made it possible to say sex in public. Her scripted quips are legendary, and she was able to zing them in real life. When Hirschhorn asked her how she managed to look so uncannily young-at 75 her skin was flawless and her face unlined-she replied: No secret. I go to bed early. I meditate. I eat all the correct foods, I dont smoke or drink, and I believe with a passion in myself. You can only beat nature when you show the bitch whos boss! Leonard Maltin in his Foreword says, Mae West was an absolute-and resolute-original. There...
