Don t stop, said Clare. But I will, whispered Kate; we ll get the very latest, and then, as the old saying goes, we ll leave our characters with them and move on. I don t want the latest; and I declare, Kate, since you can t have pet lizards and little alligators, like you did when we visited aunt down in Florida, you seem determined to hunt up some other kind of reptiles. Kate s only response was a ringing laugh, as she brought up Cruiser in front of the gate, and, coming down from the cart, looked over her shoulder at Clare, whose face was a study; and then saluted each of the damsels with a sounding kiss, saying, between salutations: Why, girls, if I had thought you would have been out here, I d have brought the carriage, and we d have had such a delightful ride and chat; but you are so retiring in your dispositions and habits that I had no idea of seeing you; but when I did I couldn t resist the temptation to stop. If Clare had found herself in front of a fertilizer factory, she would not have felt a more desperate desire to go on; but there was no help for it. She was fairly pulled out of the cart and covered with kisses, each one of which she thought would blister her cheek--somehow she managed to...
