See, then, the best of good luck for each one of us this year! Although Mere Pitou s rotund body, like Falstaff s, was fat and scant o breath, and the Pilgrims Way was steep and rocky, some reserve of energy enabled her to clap her hands and scream the tidings of high fortune when the notes of a deep-toned bell pealed from an alp still hidden among the trees. Three girls, fifty paces higher up the path, halted when they heard that glad cry-and, indeed, who would not give ear to such augury? Why should the clang of a bell foretell good luck, Mother? cried Barbe, the youngest, seventeen that September day, and a true Breton maid, with eyes like sloes, and cheeks the tint of ripe russet apples, and full red lips ever ready to smile shyly, revealing the big, white, even teeth of a peasant.
