Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Basketball Decisions Limited Time Offer at $2.99! Can YOU Be a Team Player? Uncle Mick always tells James that he is the best player on the court and that he should try to score as many points as possible. But one day James hears his favourite Basketball player talking on the television about how he thinks teamwork and being a good team player is the most important thing. Now the other kids at school are giving James trouble because they think he hogs the ball too much and doesn't play well in the team. They said if he doesn't start playing fairly then they won't pass him the ball, one of them even wants to fight him. What will James do? Will he please his uncle and be the superstar kid, or will he help out his team mates and become a team player? The championships are just around the corner and he needs to make his mind up now.
