Excerpt from Applied Science, Vol. 8: Incorporated With Transactions of the University of Toronto Engineering Society; May, 1913 to April, 1914 It is essential to safety, that the extension be placed at some distance from the present system, to render. It improbable that it may be affected at the same time, by any untoward happening. As to purity: it is quite possible to treat the present supply so as to make it perfectly safe and very desirable. The location could not, therefore be rejected On this score. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
