Excerpt: .All are open to men and women and offer courses leading (a) to credit in regular normal school, college, or university courses, (b) to credit for the Elementary Professional Certificate, (c) to credit toward the Special Certificate in high school subjects, and (d) to a review of the elementary branches in preparation for State Teachers Examination for the First Grade and Second Grade Certificates. The review courses constitute no small part of the work done in these Summer Sessions and in reality the State thus maintains in its own higher institutions highly organized cram courses for State certificates. High school graduates who complete three summer courses of six weeks each may secure thus the Elementary Professional Certificate, as also may holders of First Grade Certificates, regardless of previous education and training. Thus the State institutions, through the State system of certification, are encouraged, if not...
