Praises to My King: Christmas Messages from the Heart are poetic writings that acknowledge the birth of her Lord and Savior Jesus. For many years these messages have been written and shared with a countless number of people. They are read at many church services, dinners, family gatherings, etc. They speak of the love, hope, and joy that is found during the Christmas season. Such a priceless gift to behold. Such an honor to utilize the gifts and talents she has been blessed with. Natalie used to purchase Christmas cards written by other people. There came a point where she felt she could write my own Christmas card. It would encompass my faith and my beliefs. Each piece always has something new to reflect upon and ultimately share with others. The Christmas messages that come from my heart could be written in my style. I enjoy writing poetry. It has become a passion of mine for many years. This year, it was time to put several of these Christmas poems into a book. What a great way to share the message of...
