Hailed as one of the Canadian Children's Book Centre's Best Books for Kids and Teens, The Last Wild Boy is a dystopian novel about Nora, who lives in the walled city of Aahimsa, an idyllic community of girls and women working together to make a peaceful life free of the brutality of the Outsiders. As the companion of the mayor of Aahimsa's daughter, Alice, she enjoys privileges that other women from the working class can only dream of. But when she and Alice find an Outsider baby abandoned within the city walls, Nora starts to question whether the Outsiders pose as much of a threat to her civilization as she's been taught.
