ANTOINETTE: SHATTERED DREAMS

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pretty on the outside, dangerous on the inside. For Kerry it was the gift and the curse. Kerry starts out as a dreamy eyed wife who only wants what s best for her budding new family. After the honeymoon period unexpectedly sizzles out, she becomes easily bored and no longer amused by her husbands lack of excitement and desire. This lack of fulfillment sets off an unquenchable thirst forcing Kerry to find that missing spark of lust outside of her marriage. What started out as playful flirting quickly evolved into extra-marital adventures. Kerry has clearly stepped beyond the boundaries of what she promised to keep sacred in her wedding vows. Spinning a seemingly impenetrable web of deception gives her power and confidence to yield to her desires. This yearning makes her behavior even bolder as she begins to act in even more rash ways. Kerry soon finds herself caught up in the night life and with male co-workers who adore her and are now eating out the palm of her hand. This attention places Kerry on an unstable pedestal she can t seem to come down from. While men eagerly pursue her forbidden fruit, Kerry s marriage teeters dangerously on the brink of collapse. With each covert rendezvous Kerry ventures off to, she gets dangerously closer to the adulterous point of no return. In hopes of finding herself, Kerry ends up losing her identity and everything that she once used to hold dear. When her all-American husband Charles becomes aware of his wife s dirty little secrets, he decides to get his hands dirty as well. Self-drawn images of what his wife is up to...
