Carter s master plan finally seems to be moving forward after five years of seclusion and planning. He s confident he s amassed enough money, respect, and sheer bullying power to push his plans for Riverside High School forward. Old enemies continue to slander Carter and his former student, Kaydee, but threats of legal action and Kaydee s own honesty quickly defuse the situation. In fact, Carter feels confident enough to put Kaydee in charge of his development company and let the business run itself. Then a series of missteps puts everything Carter s worked for in jeopardy, starting with a dalliance with his ex-wife, Mary. Caught with his pants down, Carter makes himself scarce, embarking on a trip that ends among the bright lights of Las Vegas, where he encounters a heady mix of women and alcohol. As Carter indulges himself, events unfold at Riverside that will have a significant impact on his life. If Kaydee cannot bring Carter home in time, years of planning may be for nothing. A sweeping tale of interpersonal drama and the growing pains of an upscale community, Tones of the Body s Voices: Carter Gets Caught With His Pants Down continues Carter s struggle to save his school, his family, and himself.
