In this fascinating book we look back at Trump s beginnings. From the middle class suburbs of Queens, working for his father s Real Estate company, through to owning his first apartment on the Upper East Side of Manhattan we learn something about what it was that made him a successful businessman, a politician and now the most powerful human being on the planet. The book also examines the presidential candidacy, Trump s race for the White House and the numerous run-ins he has had with the media, other candidates and opponents as he insulted and bullied his way through the campaign. Love him or hate him, Trump has been big news for a long time and he will continue to be so for a lot longer. Delve inside the pages of this book and learn what shaped him into the man he is today. No matter what you think of Donald Trump, whether you are a supporter and admirer of his views or someone who eyes him with suspicion and a certain amount of dread every time he speaks, he has turned an entire political system on its head and there will undoubtedly be more to come.
