Audible Studios on Brilliance, 2016. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. Gazing into the bathroom mirror one morning while shaving, Josh Kornbluth realizes that he looks remarkably like the guy on the $100 bill. Like any good Jewish son, he immediately calls his mother. From there he becomes obsessed with what it means to be a founding father, especially when your own father/son relationship (Ben had an illegitimate son named William who was a British loyalist during the Revolutionary War) is more than a bit strained. Part History Detectives and part embarrassingly hilarious autobiography, Kornbluth s resulting investigation of the man behind the famous spectacles will take you from the hallowed halls of academia to Kornbluth s richly comic interactions with his mother Bunny and Aunt Birdie, sharing along the way his discoveries about America s history, family foibles, and the surprises beneath the surface of even our most familiar American tall tales.
