Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.There is a spiritual crisis brewing in our nation and around the world in which the majority of people are ignorant to its consequences. Governments and their anti-religious forces are becoming an ironclad force to attempt to halt religious rights as they petition for less of God's influence on our culture. The anti-God rhetoric is at an all-time high along with legislation that seems to attack both the Church and Christians. We should be concerned about this matter because these are evil forces camouflaged as something well and good for our nation, but are actually the anti-Christ spirits of our day. Spiritual and moral accountability they abhor. In their schemes, semantics are used in the terms of words such as tolerance, diversity, political correctness, and gender neutrality, and are put in syntax form, so on the surface it seems harmless, yet they are being used to promote the agenda of the anti-God crowd. From the philosophy of these terms has risen what we will call semantic insanity and gender confusion, which are leading to a type of extremism against common sense unprecedented in this modern era of civilization. No longer do we know who we are spiritually; no longer do we want to be male and female; man and woman, husbands and wives in the way that God designed humanity to operate anatomically. The human model, as inspired by God whom gave us our distinctiveness is being tampered with as the atheist, agnostics, narcissist, nihilist, humanist, modern day Pharisees, Sadducees, and scribes are challenging everything moral with a relativistic and existentialist view of life. In this modern era, God's creations are actually trying to reinvent not only themselves but also...
