

In All the Silent Manliness (Paperback)

By Lou Kief

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Poignant and Funny! Who knew life in a funeral home could be so bizarre? - Christiana Gallagher This book is a GEM. You made me literally laugh out loud and cry and cheer for the good guys. Well done. Beautiful work! - Scott Kunkle, PHD Life doesn't stop being funny when someone dies. Barry Lowe ran away to San Francisco to hide who he was, but his escape quickly ends. He finds himself on a return journey home to the family funeral business when his younger brother, Rob, is killed. Flash back with him as he relives growing up in that same building while he steps in for his parents and takes charge. If you liked Six Feet Under you'll love the quirky and sometimes hilarious characters that inhabit Barry's world. Read and enjoy the journey! I finished the book with a Kleenex in my hand and a smile on my face. - Connie Hollander A real page turner! Kudos to Lou Kief for a fine piece of work! - David York.
