Excerpt from Glimpses of Panama: And of the Canal Dim, ghostly mountain shapes on the sky, directly ahead, gave us our first glimpse of the Isthmian Land. The seven days voyage down from New York, with its blue skies and smooth seas and lazy life on deck, had been pleasant enough, and we had even lamented that it was not to be longer; but now, on the instant, that feeling took wings and we were full of eagerness to reach the strange and wonderful things we had come so far to see.
