

The Ultimate Chess Strategy Book: Volume 1: How to Play the Closed Openings Like

By Nava, Amador Gonzalez De La. Romero, Alfonso.

Gambit. 1 Paperback(s), 2008. soft. Book Condition: New. The opening is reaching its end, and the intelligent chess player must make a pivotal decision about the appropriate middle-game strategy should he seek an active plan, taking advantage of his own strengths and his opponent's weaknesses, or re-build his own position while hindering his opponent's plans? Or is there a ready-made plan from a classic game that can be tailored to fit the situation? The authors, both Spanish chess masters, present 90 multiple-choice tests, with detailed solutions, to help players develop a sense for how the decision is made, while at the same time exploring a repertoire of plans drawn from games played by such virtuosos as Anatoly Karpov and Tigran Petrosian. 207.
