John Wiley and Sons Ltd, United States, 2006. Hardback. Condition: New. 6th ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. Make informed decisions in today's dynamic international business environments. International accounting has never been so exciting. Not only is the pace of international business, finance, and investment rapidly increasing, but we are also moving closer than ever before toward a convergence of accounting standards worldwide. Updated and revised to keep pace with these changes, this Sixth Edition of Radebaugh, Gray, and Black's International Accounting and Multinational Enterprises focuses on international business strategies and how accounting applies to these strategies. You'll learn how to use financial and accounting information across borders, and make more informed decisions in an increasingly complex international business environment. The authors also explain the key factors, including cultural differences, that influence accounting standards and practices in different countries, and how those factors impact the harmonization of standards worldwide. This edition features new coauthor, Ervin L. Black of Brigham Young University. It provides updated coverage on corporate governance, Sarbanes Oxley, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB), and how these forces affect U.S.-based multinationals, as well as companies in other countries. It includes increased coverage of the efforts of the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) to establish a uniform set of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) worldwide and its interface with different national standard setters, especially the FASB. Special attention is given to the experience of the European Union and Australia in adopting IFRS in 2005. It features a web-based International Accounting Practice Problem, which helps students see how to apply IFRS to a set of transactions. It presents brief, user-oriented examples called Strategic Decision Points at the beginning of each chapter. It covers expanded end-of-chapter material, including more discussion questions...
