The local Knitting Society is putting on a fair at the city's community center where women can share their favorite foods, crafts, and memories of their mothers. Diner owner, Sonja Reed, has prepared another delicious waffle recipe in honor of her own mother. Unfortunately, the festivities turn dark when a body is found shoved into a janitor's closet. At first glance, the homicide seems fairly cut and dried, but when a strange object shows up on the scene, it falls to Sonja and her friend Belinda to figure out how it's connected to the murder. Will this Mother's Day be a permanent stain on the town's psyche? Or will Sonja be able to snag the killer once again?.
