The affirmation that you have been seeking can only be given by one person: God. It can only be accepted one way, by receiving the Love that He has been offering you. He wants you to see yourself through His eyes. Eyes of Love. Sandra Felecia shares a captivating story of her journey to self-love. Her compelling testimony will provoke you to embrace life's challenges as orchestrated situations designed by God to bring Him glory! This powerful revelation will release you to forgive yourself and others from the strongholds that have hindered you from Loving You. The Affirmation of Me gives readers tangible reasons to have hope in the face of death and pain. Sandra Felecia effectively teaches readers how to appreciate the good that can come as a result of tragedies, especially given the fact that death is inevitable. Being able to identify the benefits of a negative event is a catharsis for healing. At this point in time in your life you are exactly where you should be....
