Excerpt: . . . 9 advisory support teams in support of the training that will allow Iraqi and Afghan forces to assume a greater role in securing their own countries. To assist in this transformation of the Reserve components, the Department initiated a Continuum of Service paradigm aimed to provide more flexibility in creating needed capabilities and to ensure seamless and cost-effective management of military forces. It prescribes both organizational and systemic change in order to more effectively manage individuals throughout their military career, while meeting the full spectrum of military requirements in peacetime and wartime with greater efficiency and economy of resources. The continuum of service enhances the spirit of volunteerism by providing more ways in which military service can be performed to support DOD missions. The continuum provides more extensive opportunities for the part-time force to volunteer for extended service. Facilitating transitions between levels of participation reflects the convergence of two goals: that of an operationally integrated total force and that of a seamless force - one where members can easily move between full and part-time status. Facilitating these goals was the creation of the Operational Support strength accounting category authorized by Congress in the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) for Fiscal Year 2005, which makes it easier and less disruptive for Reserve component members to volunteer to perform operational missions. Recognizing that this Operational Reserve is still a Reserve Force, our policies continue to...
