University of Ottawa Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 142 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Comment le discours féministe se porte-t-il au sein de la francophonie minoritaire canadienne? Quelle est l'ampleur réelle de son champ de recherche et comment qualifier la variété des registres à partir desquels il se déploie? Invitées par le Réseau des chercheuses féministes de l'Ontario français, des femmes de diverses régions du pays répondent et articulent leurs réflexions autour de quatre grandes thématiques : la construction identitaire, la formation et l'éducation, la santé et le bien-être personnel et le témoignage d'activistes. Examinant la réalité multi-dimensionnelle de l'identité des femmes, les politiques égalitaires des chances, les programmes d'intégration au marché du travail et l'émergence d'un discours féministe sur la santé des femmes, les collaboratrices de cet ouvrage offrent, dans un contexte de pluralisme, des pistes d'action et de recherches aux femmes francophones canadiennes. Elles visent ainsi sensibiliser le public et les divers intervenants et intervenantes aux questions relatives aux femmes francophones qui vivent et œuvrent en milieu minoritaire. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
