Hackerteen: Vol. 1

By Marcelo Marques

O'Reilly Media, Inc, USA. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Hackerteen: Vol. 1, Marcelo Marques, This engaging graphic novel probes the modern online world where an increasing number of middle school - and high school-aged kids spend their time. Through it's sophisticated cloak-and-dagger storyline, Hackerteen teaches young readers about basic computing and Internet topics, including the potential for victimization and need for ethical behavior. Written by members of a Brazilian training company that offers classes in computer use and Internet safety to teenagers, Hackerteen stands on its own as a beautiful full-color graphic thriller with true-to-life characters and their wily nemeses. But the book is also ideal for parents and teachers who want their children and students to understand the risks of using the Internet and the proper ways to behave online. Among the advantages of Hackerteen: the book gradually introduces and expands upon computing and Internet concepts as the story progresses; through it's focus on ethical online behavior, the book teaches readers to protect themselves against spyware, phishing, and other dangers. It includes links posted at the bottom of the pages that point readers to educational tips and other material. The values of the protagonists provide models for ethical behavior....
