Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ralph, the Tallest Elf A Children s poem by Karl Boyd Ralph, the Tallest Elf began in a very strange way. One Christmas season I purchased a t-shirt that said, I have had it with elves up to here! There was a line about the height of my belt. At the time, I thought it was funny, and the words to an old Christmas song kept playing in my mind, Have yourself a merry little Christmas. And so, much like Ralph in the poem, I changed a few words to those you will hear him sing. But then, it struck me - it wasn t funny to a short person, and how would I feel if it were me? My mother loved to write poetry, and I guess some rubbed off, because over the next few days, I wrote Ralph, the Tallest Elf to redeem myself in my own eyes. To my surprise, with invaluable assistance from a good friend and editor, Joyce Gilmour, the poem took on a life of its own. I sent a copy...
