Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Russian . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Vavochka, the widowed mother, Alexandra lasneva, who is a music tutor, has kept up a cozy association with a neighborhood physician, Tikhmenev, for a long time, while her little girl Vavochka is away at school. lasneva refuses to wed him, be that as it may, until her little girl goes on her own independent way. However, after graduation, the post-pubescent Vavochka returns home. At first not interested in Tikhmenev, who regards her as a daughter, Vavochka is influenced by one of her friends to make a attempt taking the physician from her mother. Tikhmenev succumbs to her ascertained teases, which stir in him something that he fears to awaken. lasneva stays oblivious to their relationship, which so far has just been culminated in the passing looks the two had traded. Tikhmenev gives Vavochka a jewel ring for her birthday, however the innocent young lady is blinded by the radiance and unconcerned with what else such a present may propose. The story s peak is encouraged by one of Vavochka s friends, somebody significantly more perceptive than her mother. The envious physician has gone to watch Vavochka meet with her young companions; amid this meeting, a young male in the group, Mal tsev, kisses Vavochka on the lips. Mal tsev watches the physician pale in a staggered response, who becomes immediately aware of the circumstances. The following day, after lasneva has left on a trip to Moscow, Mal tsev stops by and convinces Vavochka to stroll with him to a friend s home. On the way, she stops and sits on the road to remove her ill-fitted shoes, not losing a moment, Mal tsev tosses down his jacket on the...
