Excerpt: .of the old Adam that is in all his descendants. But we are confident that as the plan is put into operation, and the beneficial consequences begin to appear, the consensus of favorable opinion will grow stronger and stronger until the wonder will be that this was not tried long before. Much space is given to this matter, but not too much; for no subject of equal importance has come up for many a day. The one thing to do, under the new plan, is to rally all the forces of the church to the raising of the united apportionments, with such a margin as shall make possible the advance called for by the Five Year Program. The point at which new life must be introduced is that of the groups of men in the churches, who need to take more active part in...
