Excerpt from English Minstrelsie, Vol. 3 of 8: A National Monument of English Song; Collated and Edited, With Notes and Historical Introductions O comprehend the history of the English Opera, it is necessary to keep distinct in the mind two sources and two parallel streams of national music. In the first place, we have the drama into which songs were introduced that in no way helped on the action of the piece, but were mere embellishments, and which could be omitted without detriment to the movement and development of the plot. Thus in Shakespeare s Love s Labour s Lost, we have six songs introduced If she be made of white or red, If Love make me forsworn, So sweet a kiss the golden sun gives not, Did not the heavenly rhetoric of thine eye, On a day, and When daisies pied.
