

Walk Through Walls

By Abramovic, Marina

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Random House US | Becoming Marina Abramovic. A Memoir | Perhaps the most famous performance artist in the world, Marina Abramovic (nicknamed "The Grandmother of Performance Art") has led a unique, artistically groundbreaking, passion-filled life. In her first ever memoir, she examines her life through the powerful lens of the human spirit's ability to overcome fear and pain. | "I had experienced absolute freedom-I had felt that my body was without boundaries, limitless; that pain didn't matter, that nothing mattered at all-and it intoxicated me." In 2010, more than 750,000 people stood in line at Marina Abramovic's MoMA retrospective for the chance to sit across from her and communicate with her nonverbally in an unprecedented durational performance that lasted more than 700 hours. This celebration of nearly fifty years of groundbreaking performance art demonstrated once again that Marina Abramovic is truly a force of nature. The child of Communist war-hero parents under Tito's regime in postwar Yugoslavia, she was raised with a relentless work ethic. Even as she was beginning to build an international artistic career, Marina lived at home under her mother's abusive control, strictly obeying a 10 p.m. curfew. But nothing could quell her insatiable curiosity, her...
